Dear Parent/Carer,

Philosophy of Religion & Ethics Conference, Cambridge Friday 29 November 2013

As part of your child's studies in A Level Philosophy & Ethics, a visit has been arranged to attend a day conference at The Guild Hall in Cambridge. The A Level Philosophy of Religion & Ethics conferences, organised by Julie Arliss, have become the most highly respected conferences of their type. These conferences prize themselves on offering high-calibre speakers, each with a genuine intellectual pedigree and long standing experience of the A Level curriculum.

Students will attend a series of lectures, including a debate, at The Guild Hall, Cambridge on Friday 29 November 2013. The College will make a substantial contribution towards the cost of the transport, leaving only the conference fee of £20 to be paid by each student.

Students will travel to the centre by coach, departing College at 7.00am promptly and returning to College by 5.30pm. Students will need to be in college dress and bring a packed lunch with them. The total cost for each student will be £20.00.

If you would like your child to take part in the visit, please return the attached pro-forma to Finance, together with the payment of £20.00 which is non-refundable, by Friday 8 November 2013. You can also make this payment using our online system, Parent Pay.

Please note that if insufficient voluntary contributions are received, the College reserves the right to cancel the visit. If you have any concerns regarding costs for the visit, please contact Miss Walendziewski, PA to the Principal, in confidence on 01332 204040.

Yours sincerely
