What Went Well

Landau Forte College is partnering with Magic Breakfast to offer students free breakfast bagels from January 2019

ABR - We are proud to be a National School Breakfast Programme school.

We are happy to offer a healthy breakfast to all our students from Tuesday 8 January. We hope lots of our students will join us in the Restaurant, between 8am and 8.25am, each day for a free breakfast bagel.

House Competition

CHW - The House Competition has started to heat up with strong Liberty performances across the board opening up an early twenty-point lead over their fellow rivals. What appeared to be malfunctioning Equality House under Mr Rowe's leadership, appeared to revitalised after a war cry in gathering, similar to that of Braveheart saw a storming performance in the inter-house handball competition securing two very convincing tournament victories. Despite a tactical ploy from Mr Andrews to use Duke of Edinburgh participation points, his house, Versatility still sit way back in 5th. It appears to be a tall order to overturn the deficit.

Mr Carey's Diversity snatched victory after Mr Andrews ploy in Duke of Edinburgh participation and managed to reach the dizzy heights of third place for four hours if not five. Opportunity appear to be the early dark horses with Dr Delbridge keeping a very calm and measured approach picking up points as if it was the easiest process in the world.

Competition continues in the upcoming weeks; can Versatility break their run of rotten luck or can Mrs Rowe's Liberty house continue to remain in cruise control into the winter break?

Information Centre Update

IC - On Friday 9th, as part of the Armistice commemorations, the History team distributed blank poppy templates to all areas of the college, asking that each member of the LFC community write their thoughts, memories or thanks on a poppy. These were collected in and during last week Ms Holme pinned every poppy onto net and created the Landau Forte Weeping Window on the lower mall. Please take time to have a look at all the thoughtful messages.

Along with the Weeping Window the IC displays and the soldier silhouettes will remain in place until the end of November. Please come into the IC to see what we have and please take care not to tread on the poppies or lean on the wall displays.
