

A Level Chemistry

Magazines/Journals

- Chemistry Science Review (quarterly)
- New Scientist
- Nature

Books

- H<sub>2</sub>O: A Biography of Water by Phillip Ball
- Obsessive Genius: The Inner World of Marie Curie by Barbara Goldsmith
- The Disappearing Spoon: And Other True Tales of Madness, Love, and the History of the World from the Periodic Table of the Elements by Sam Kean
- Stuff Matters: Exploring the Marvellous Materials That Shape our Man Made World by Mark Miodownik

Places of interest - London

- Science Museum
- Natural History Museum
- The Faraday Museum at The Royal Institution

TV/Film

- Chemistry: A Volatile History – BBC iPlayer

Websites

- <https://www.gresham.ac.uk/schools> – (Please click the appropriate subject)
- BBC iPlayer – Science & Nature. A large number of programmes exploring a wide variety of topics and current scientific issues.

<https://www.khanacademy.org/science/chemistry>

- <https://www.livescience.com/> – Great for finding articles with lots of up to date data for all of the sciences.
-

Podcasts

- Science Weekly – The Guardian
- BBC Inside Science – BBC Radio 4
- The Infinite Monkey Cage – BBC Radio 4

Apps

- BBC news app – ‘Science & Environment’ and ‘Health’ section